

This adventure/romance story not only contains diving at the greatest coral reef in the world but continues into the highlands of New Zealand. The underwater adventures and the beauty of New Zealand are an excellent backdrop for a love affair. It is difficult not to have wild adventures and fall in love in this part of the world.