

This adventure/romance story begins at the Mermaid Club in Nassau, Bahamas. Sandy works at the club where she meets Rick, who is on a scuba diving trip from his home in Florida. A love affair quickly develops, and they start a series of diving adventures around Nassau and Freeport. Their adventures eventually travel to the mainland, where the romance continues as Sandy follows Rick's SCCA racing circuit around Florida. The stories are based on real events and real people. This will also be a wonderful travel brochure for places and local spots to visit on both the Bahama Islands and Florida.
